

Ed Lefkowitz

Shooting two guidebooks across 5 boroughs simultaneously without losing your mind

Links to resources

Trello <https://trello.com/> A useful (and free) way for individuals and teams to manage projects through boards, lists, and cards toggl <https://toggl.com/features/> App for time tracking. Also free.

Wunderlist <https://www.wunderlist.com/> list making app

Atul Gawande, The Checklist Manifesto <http://atulgawande.com/book/the-checklist-manifesto/> Why checklists work. You don't need to read the book to use checklists, but it will convince you that they work LightTrac <http://www.lightracapp.com/> Useful app for finding the sun's (and moon's) azimuth and declination anywhere, at any time. IOS and Android.

And from the department of shameless self-promotion, more about the books 111 Museums in New York That You Must Not Miss and 111 Places in Brooklyn That You Must Not Miss.

You can find me at lefkowicz.com
And reach me at ed@lefkowicz.com